GOVERNMENT OF EASTERN BENGAL AND ASSAM.

NOTIFICATION.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Shillong, the 28th November 1910.

No. 2804-R.—The following is published for general information, with reference to section 42 of the Land Acquisition Act, I of 1894 :—

Agreement.

Memorandum of agreement made this 7th day of September 1910, between the Rivers Steam Navigation Company, Limited, a Joint Stock Company with limited liability, having its registered office at Winchester House, Old Broad Street, London, and the India Genera Navigation and Railway Company, Limited, a Joint Stock Company with limited liability having its registered office at Orient House, New Broad Street, London (hereinafter called the Companies), of the one part and the Secretary of State for India in Council (hereinafter called the Secretary of State) of the other part.

Whereas for the purpose of the construction of a godown and for the purposes subsidiary thereto, such purposes not to include the stacking or depositing of coal, the Companies have applied to the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam for the acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, of the piece or parcel of land containing 1 bigha 4 kathas or thereabout situated in the town of Gauhati in the district of Kamrup and more particularly described in the schedule hereto and delineated in the plan hereunto annexed.

And whereas the said Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam, being satisfied by an enquiry held under section 40 of the said Act, that the proposed acquisition is needed for the aforesaid purposes and that the said work is likely to prove useful to the public, has consented to acquire on behalf of the Companies the piece or parcel of land hereinbefore described.

And whereas the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam has required the Companies under the provisions of section 41 of the abovementioned Act to enter into the agreement with the Secretary of State hereinafter contained. Now this indenture witnesseth that it is hereby agreed and declared as follows :—

1. On demand the Companies shall and will pay to the said Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam all and every compensation in respect of the said land tendered, paid or awarded or to be tendered, paid or awarded by the Collector under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, or by the Court to which a reference under Part III of the said Act may be made or by the Court or Courts to which an appeal from the award of the said Court may be preferred, and all costs, charges and expenses of the proceedings in the aforesaid Courts or otherwise incidental to the proposed acquisition or payable in respect thereof under the provisions of the said Act.

2. On demand made by the said Collector the obligations of the Companies under the last preceding clause not being thereby limited, the Companies shall and will deposit with the said Collector such sum or sums of money as in his discretion the said Collector may in anticipation estimate to be necessary for the purposes mentioned in the last preceding clause.

3. On payment by the Companies of all demands under the foregoing first clause, or in the discretion of the said Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam (on deposit by the Companies of all estimated amounts as provided in the 2nd clause) but not before possession shall have been taken under the provisions of the abovementioned Act, the Secretary of State shall make over possession of the land to the Companies and shall execute and do all such acts and deeds as may be necessary and proper for effectually vesting the same in the Companies.

4. The said land shall be held by the Companies for the purposes of such a godown as is hereinbefore mentioned and for purposes subsidiary thereto and without the sanction in writing of the said Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam first had and obtained and for no other purpose whatsoever; and without prejudice to the generality of this condition the Companies undertake in particular that coal shall not at any time be stacked or deposited thereon.

5. The said godown shall be completed (and fully equipped in all respects ready for use) within three years from the date on which possession of the said land shall have been given to the Companies.

6. Should the said godown not be completed and fully equipped in all respects ready for use within the period stated in the past preceding clause or within such further period as in its discretion may be prescribed or allowed by the said Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam, or should the said land at any time thereafter cease for a period of 6 consecutive months, to be held and used, or cease to be required for the purpose or purposes provided for in the foregoing fourth clause; or should it, without the sanction in writing of the said Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam first had and obtained, be used by the Companies for any other purposes than those provided for in the said fourth clause, and, in particular, should it be used for the stacking or depositing of coal then and in any such case, the said Government may summarily re-enter upon and take possession of the said land, and thereupon the interest of the Companies in the said land shall absolutely cease and determine.

7. On taking such possession the said Government may sell or otherwise deal with the said land as it may think proper. Should the said Government sell the said land the said Government after deducting the expenses incurred in connection with the said taking of possession and with such sale shall pay the proceeds to the Companies. Should the said Government, on taking possession, decide not to sell the land, it shall repay to the Companies all sums received from the Companies in respect of all and every compensation as provided in the foregoing first clause (less the statutory allowance of 15 per cent.), but will not repay any sums paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses.

8. The public shall be entitled to use the godown on the following terms, viz., for the storage of goods booked for despatch or for delivery to the public by the said Companies on payment of the rates in force for the time being in accordance with the rules and regulations of the said Companies.

9. Should any dispute or difference arise touching or concerning the subject matter of this agreement or any covenant clause or thing therein contained, the same shall be referred to the said Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam and the opinion and decision of the said Government upon such dispute or difference shall be final and conclusive and binding on the parties hereto.

In witness whereof the Rivers Steam and the India General Navigation and Railway Companies, Limited, have caused their common seals to be affixed and the Secretary for India in Council hath hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written :—

INSTRUCTIONS TO ENUMERATORS.

I.—RULES FOR FILLING UP THE SCHEDULE.

You must use black ink only and write very clearly and in full, never using abbreviations. In the case of every person enumerated, columns 2—8 and 12—14 must invariably have an entry made in them, and there must always be an entry in at least one of the three columns numbered 9, 10 and 11.

Column 1 (House number).—Enter the census number painted on the house. If the house is empty, write "empty" after the number, and leave one line blank. If you find a house without a number, you will enumerate the inhabitants and report the fact to the Supervisor.

Column 2 (Serial number).—This column is not to be filled up until after the final enumeration. You will then enter a serial number for all persons enumerated in the book.

Column 3 (Name).—Enter first the name of the chief resident member of the family, whether male or female; then those of the other members of the family and their resident servants, if any. If there be any objection made to giving the name of a female, write the word "female" (adding her relationship to some member of the family) and fill up the rest of the columns for her as usual. If an infant has not yet been named, enter the word "infant." If any female is unwilling to give her own or her husband's name you must ask some one else for the information. When you have entered all the persons in a house, you will leave one space blank before making the entries for the next house.

Column 4 (Religion).—Enter here the religion which each person returns, as Hindu, Muhammadan, Christian, Jain, Parsi, etc. In the case of Christians, the sect also should be entered below the entry for religion, e. g., Church of England, Roman Catholic, Lutheran, Baptist, etc. In the case of aboriginal tribes who are not Hindus, Muhammadans, Christians, etc., the name of the tribe should be entered in this column, e.g. Chentsu, Kurumba, Khond, Savara, etc.

Column 5 (Male or female).—Enter whether male or female, even though you have written the word "female" in column 3 already. Enter eunuchs as male.

Column 6 (Married, etc.)—Enter each person, whether infant, child or grown up, as either married, unmarried, or widowed. Divorced persons should be entered as widowed, and dancing-girls as married or unmarried according as they return themselves.

Column 7 (Age).—Enter the number of years each person has completed. For infants less than one year old, enter the word "infant."

Column 8 (Caste).—Enter the main caste and sub-caste of Hindus and of Jains who declare themselves to have castes, the tribe of those who have no caste distinction and the race of Christians, Buddhists, etc.

For example.—For Hindus, you should enter the caste and sub-caste such as—

Brahmin.—Murikinad, Brahacharana, Badaganad, etc.

Kshatriya.—Arasu, Koomarpatta, Rajaput, Bachewar, etc.

Komati.—Kannada, Myada, Setti, Yamavanta, etc.

Nagartha.—Namdari, Sivachar, etc.

Lingayeta.—Aradhya, Jangama, Banajiga, Panchachara Gowda, Gowdamane, etc.

Vakkaliga.—Gangadikar, Morasu, Halepaiki, Kunchotiga, Rodguara, etc.

Kuruba.—Bevina, Byalatha, Hain, Hale, Halli, Ane, Birappana Vakkalu, etc.

Beda.—Nayika, Machi, Pallegar, etc.

Banajiga.—Nayadu, Setti, Telugu, etc.

Wadda.—Bailu, Boyi, Kallu, Mannu, etc.

Holaya.—Morasu, Konga, Maggada, Tigala, etc.

Madiga.—Chekkali, Chemmar, Morasu, Goppasale, etc.

Tigala.—Ulli, Palli, Vanne, etc.

Panchala.—Achari, Akkasale, Badagi, Kammara, Kanchugara, etc.

For Jains, you should enter Digambara, Svetambara, etc.

In the case of Muhammadans, say whether a person is a Shekh, Saiyed, Pathan, Labbe, Mappilla, etc.; for Christians, whether English, Irish, German, Eurasian, Armenian, Native Christian, etc.; if a Buddhist, Burmese, Chinese, etc.

Column 9 (Principal occupation of actual workers).—Enter the principal means of livelihood of all persons who actually do work or carry on business, whether personally or by means of servants, or who live on private property (e.g., house-rent, pension, etc.) Enter the exact occupation and avoid vague terms such as "service" or "writing" or "labour." For example, in the case of labour, say whether in the fields, or in a coal mine, or jute factory, or cotton mill, or lac-factory, or earthwork, etc. In the case of agriculture distinguish between landowners and tenants, cultivators and non-cultivators, farm servants (whose labour is hired for a considerable period) and casual or daily field labourers. If a person makes the articles he sells, he should be entered as "maker and seller" of them. Women and children who work at any occupation which helps to augment the family income must be entered in column 9 under that occupation and not in column 11. Column 9 will be blank for dependants.

Column 10 (Subsidiary occupation of actual workers).—Enter here any occupation which actual workers pursue at any time of the year in addition to their principal occupation. Thus if a person lives principally by his earnings as a cultivating landowner, but partly also by bandy-driving, the words "cultivating landowner" will be entered in column 9 and "bandy-driver" in column 10. If an actual worker has no additional occupation, enter in column 10 the word "none." This column will be blank for dependants.

Column 11 (means of subsistence of dependants).—If the person does not work or carry on business either personally or by means of servants and has no private property and is dependant on another for a livelihood, enter in this column the principal occupation of the person upon whom he or she depends. This column will be blank for actual workers.

Column 12 (Birth district).—Enter the district or state in which each person was born, and if the person was born outside the Mysore State but in India add the name of the province to the district of birth. If the person was born out of India, enter the country, as England, Afghanistan, Ceylon. The names of the villages, taluks, etc., are not to be given.

Column 13 (Lauguage).—Enter the language which each person ordinarily speaks in his own home. In the case of infants and deaf-mutes the language of the mother should be entered.

Column 14 (Literate or illiterate).—Enter against all persons who can both read and write any language, the word literate. Against persons who cannot read and write any language make a × in this column.

Column 15 (English).—Enter the word 'English' against all persons shown as literate who can both read and write English. The column will be blank for those who cannot.

Column 16 (Infirmities).—If any person be insane or blind of both eyes, or suffering from corrosive leprosy, or deaf and dumb from birth, enter the name of the infirmity in this column.

Do not enter those who are blind of one eye only, or who are suffering from white leprosy only, or who have become deaf and dumb after birth.

II.—PROCEDURE.

A.—The first Round—Preliminary Enumeration.

1. As soon as you receive this book obtain from the Supervisor of your circle the list of the buildings in your block and from that fill up completely the "block list" stitched at the end of the book.

2. Fill up also the headings of the block list and of all the pages in the book, and enter the particulars of the book in the form on the left of the previous page of the cover. Your Supervisor will show you how to do this.

3. Next, beginning on the 4th February you will visit every house in your block to which a separate number has been affixed in the order in which the houses are entered in your block list, and fill up the columns in the schedule for all persons who ordinarily live in the house. Even if they are temporarily absent such persons should be entered, if they will be back by the 10th March. Visitors should not be entered if they will have left before that date.

4. You must carefully study the instructions given above for filling in the columns of the schedule and also the specimen schedule on the cover of this book which contains a number of entries illustrating the rules. You should consult your Supervisor whenever you are in doubt as to the proper entry.

5. If directed to do so by your Supervisor, you will make a rough draft on plain paper and you will not copy it in your book until it has been passed by him. When so copying them, remember that after you have written down all the entries relating to any house, you should leave one space blank before making the entries for the next house.

6. If the entry for any person in any of the columns of the schedule be the same as that for the person entered on the line above, you must repeat the entry. You must not write the word "ditto" or make dots.

7. You must have completed all the entries in your block by the 24th February.

B.—The Second Round.—Final Enumeration.

8. On the evening of the 10th March, at the time of lighting lamps, you will take this book as already filled in and again visit every house in your block in order. Before you start on your round, you must see that you are yourself enumerated in the house where you are stopping.

9. At each house, you must summon the chief member of each family and read over to him one by one the names of the members of his household entered in the schedule, asking him, as you read each name, whether the person is present in the house or not. You must also ask him particularly whether any fresh persons have come or any child has been born. You must strike out all the entries for persons who are not present, and fill up the form for any person now in the house who was not there when the first visit was made, such as guests, infants newly born, and others. You are to consider as present all persons living in the house, even though any of them may be out fishing or watching in the fields or carrying on any out-door occupation or duty.

10. The fresh entries mentioned in the last rule must be made on the blank pages at the end of your book. In each case you will enter the number of the house to which the fresh entries relate, writing under it the word 'continued.'

11. You must make no alteration whatever in any entry against the name of any person unless you have to strike out the entries altogether, because he or she is no longer present. When you strike out a person, you must draw a line completely through all the entries following that person's name, and not merely through column 3.

12. Whilst going on the second round, you must visit every house marked "empty" in your book, to see whether any person is then living there. If any persons are living there you should enumerate them.

13. You must also go to the Chattrams, Cartstands, encampments and landing places where travellers rest for the night, and enter all particulars in the schedules for the way farers, boatmen, pilgrims and others you may find there, and strike out the entries already made against persons who are not then present. You should ascertain from the village watchman whether any members of a wandering tribe have come to your block. If so, you must go and enumerate them in the manner prescribed above.

14. If any European or Eurasian householder in your block has been given a household schedule, you must collect it on the morning of the 11th March, and after seeing that columns have been duly filled in according to the rules, you must stitch it into your book, next to the last schedule filled up by you.

15. When you have enumerated all the persons in your block, and not until then, you must fill the serial numbers for them in column 2 of all the schedules.

16. You will then (on the morning of the 11th March) go without any delay to the place appointed by your Supervisor, and after your book has been inspected by him, you will enter, in the abstract printed on the inside of the cover, the mumber of houses and persons, male and female, in your block. When you have done this correctly, the Supervisor will take charge of your book and your duties will be finished.

17. According to the Census Act, every person is legally bound to furnish you with such information as is necessary for filling up the schedule, but you are forbidden to ask for any information not required for the purposes of the Census, as for instance, the amount of any person's income. Any enumerator extorting money on any pretext connected with the Census renders himself liable to punishment under the Census Act or the Penal Code.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WE, the undersigned, members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Cantonments Act, 1889, was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report with a consolidating Bill proposed by us for adoption in place of the original amending Bill annexed thereto.

2. The principal Act has already been subject to eight partial repeals and amendments Portions of it, moreover, are either spent or have been rendered obsolete by subsequent enactments; and certain of the Acts to which reference is made in it have been repealed and replaced by later Acts. The present occasion, therefore, has been deemed advantageous for the consolidation of the principal and amending Acts. We have accordingly prepared a consolidating Bill which repeals the Cantonments Act, 1889, with its amending enactments, and reproduces the law as contained therein with the amendments proposed in the Bill as introduced.

3. The alterations which we suggest in the existing Act are as follows. They make no change in the law :

Section 1 (3).—Omitted as surplusage. The Bill, if passed, will come into force at once.

Section 2.—Reproduced by clauses 31 and 32 in a shortened form, regard being had to sections 8 and 24 of the General Clauses Act, 1897.

Section 3 (2).—Omitted, being provided for by section 20 of the General Clauses Act 1897.

Section 4 (1).—The concluding words have been omitted, being provided for by section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897.

Section 10.—Omitted, as spent.

Section 18 (3) and the concluding words of section 20 (1).—Omitted, being provided for by section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897.

Section 29.—Omitted, being provided for by section 556 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

We have corrected references to Acts now repealed, and references to "Her Majesty"; and have followed present practice in referring to Acts by their statutory short titles, and in the use of certain drafting expressions now in common use in place of equivalent expressions which are contained in the Act.

4. The publication required by the rules has been made in English in the Gazette of India dated the 23rd July 1910.

5. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require re-publication, and we recommend that the consolidating Bill proposed by us be passed.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 15th July, 1910.

No. 42.—The Governor General has been pleased, under rule 23 of the Rules for the Conduct of the Legislative Business of the Council of the Governor General, to order the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Gazette of India in English, and the Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information. It is proposed to introduce the Bill at a meeting of the Legislative Council of the Governor General to be held on Friday, the 5th August, 1910:

NO. 11 OF 1910.

A Bill to provide for the continuance of the Prevention of Seditious Meetings Act, 1907.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the continuance of the Prevention of Seditious Meetings Act, 1907; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

VI of 1907.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Continuing Act, 1910.

Continuance of Act VI of 1907.

2. The Prevention of Seditious Meetings Act, 1907, shall be continued until the thirty-first day of March 1911, and shall then expire, unless further continued. VI of 1907.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

IN May 1907 the Governor General in Council was constrained, in the interests of law and order, to make and promulgate, under section 23 of the Indian Councils Act, 1861, Ordinance No. 1 of 1907 with the object of regulating the holding of meetings in the Punjab and Eastern Bengal and Assam. It was subsequently necessary, for the preservation of the peace and for the protection of the law-abiding members of the community, to incorporate in the general law a measure for the prevention of seditious meetings and to take power to bring its provisions into operation in any part of India as occasion might require. This measure was passed into law as Act VI of 1907 which received the assent of the Governor-General in Council on the 1st November 1907, and as by section 9 its duration was limited to three years from the date of passing, it will cease to have operation after the 31st October 1910.

2. In November 1907 the Act was extended to the province of Eastern Bengal and Assam where it was enforced in the district of Bakarganj. In January 1910 it was extended to Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the United Provinces, the Punjab and the Central Provinces and was enforced in March 1910 in three districts in Eastern Bengal and Assam and in June 1910 in one district in the Punjab. Where put into actual operation it has been effective in stopping several meetings, which, it was feared, if held, would have given rise to disturbances; and, even where it has not been enforced, its moral effect as a preventive measure has been invaluable. On the unanimous advice of Local Governments, the Government of India are convinced that the continuance of the Act for the present is essential to the preservation of the peace, and they propose that it should be continued in force up to the 31st March 1911.

3. The Bill now published has accordingly been prepared with the object of giving effect to this proposal.
